

Mr. Earl Ingram Sr.

January 12, 1928 - June 30, 2020

Earl Ingram, Sr. was born in Warren, Arkansas to the union of the late Dudley and Josie B. Ingram on January 12, 1928. He was a twin, born 12 minutes before his sister.

Earl accepted the Lord at an early age, and later joined Faith United Church of Christ in Milwaukee, WI. His early education was acquired in the Public Schools in Warren, AR.

Earl was 11 when his father passed. He became the man of the house at that young age and helped support the family by working odd jobs. He was a hard worker all his life, at times working two jobs. At age 17, he enlisted in the World War II US Army in order to continue to support his Mother and his siblings. He served the country while stationed in Japan. He was always eager to share that experience. He held a variety of jobs as an adult and later retired from Tower Automotive.

Earl met Georgia Marks in Warren, AR. They were married on April 7, 1947 and remained husband and wife for 65 years until she passed away in 2012. Their union produced 12 children. Earl was a very strong father who was not afraid to let everyone know who was in charge.

Earl was a loving, devoted son, brother, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, who was dependable and could be counted upon to fulfill any need of family or friend. Anyone who met him could immediately attest to his intelligence. He was a voracious reader, including books on psychiatry, and he was very articulate in his speech. He also was a SNAZZY DRESSER!

He loved to spend time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and they all loved him very much. He was guilty of introducing them to coffee!

Earl Ingram, Sr. departed this life on June 30, 2020. He is survived by four daughters: Linda Jackson, Patricia (Isaac) Cephus, Pamela Ingram, Mary (Lafayette) Ingram, five sons: Jackie Ingram, Earl Jr. (Alberta) Ingram, Gary Ingram, James Ingram and Michael

(Charlotte) Ingram

He is preceded in death by father Dudley Ingram, mother Josie Ingram, sons: Lester Charles Ingram, Donald Ray Ingram, Ricky Darnell Ingram, brother, Argie Ingram, sisters, (his twin) Pearl Collins and Delois Wesley, and special niece Carol Collins, 15 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, lifelong friend, Jake Larry.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day. To laugh to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Ah, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch, perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now. He set me free.
