“ My Uncle was full of life with a heart of song. He always went above and beyond to those he truly loved and I will never forget the times that we had and everything that he has done for me. I am beyond torn but at peace because he is no longer suffering. I love you Uncle Lonnie and you will never be forgotten. Love your Niece Tasha

“ My deepest heartfelt condolences goes to his wife (Sherrilan), Lonnie's parents (mom/dad if presently with us in flesh or definitely spiritually), his children, & siblings, Lonnie was a classy brother, talented musically, and could sing , I met Lonnie at a cookout at Carl Toney house, and Carl started telling Lonnie I sing as well 🎧🎧, so Lonnie was a little bit feeling groovy already 🎧🎧🎧, so he said for me to sing something, I replied I can't sing, Carl pumped him saying I'm always singing etc..., so I started singing some Isley Brothers, then with a little bit of the elements (Earth, Wind, & Fire), so Lonnie that's good but you have to bring it up from your diaphragm 🎧🎧🎧, okay I stated, then Lonnie gave me an invite to his home to sing with him in his basement studio etc..., and I said we'll have to make a record and get filthy hood rich 🎧🎧🎧, but he was kind brother and we had sing along on his porch with some of his partners (John, two other people), Steve Gladney, but sadly Lonnie & I never got to record our record though 🎧🎧🎧🎧, but it was funny that Lonnie felt I was trying to take his place singing, so my brother Lonnie we'll still do our show, at our crossroads 🏰 ❤️ !!! ☐
